Re: O7-42

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On September 3, 2008, Robert Herring, Sr., Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder of WealthTV, Charles Herring, President and Co-Founder of WealthTV, and I met with Elizabeth Andrion of Chairman Martin's office. I inquired about the status of complaints filed by WealthTV against four cable MSOs and learned that the complaints remain pending. I offered to supplement the record under applicable ex parte rules and if desired by the Commission with an explanation of why a timely decision is important. Ms. Andrion indicated that she would look into whether such supplementation would be useful. Robert Herring, Sr. recapped for Ms. Andrion WealthTV's understanding of the extent of support among members of the Commission for the complaint process reforms previously proposed by NAIN. He urged prompt circulation of an item to bring the members' focus to specific language. He expressed his confidence that the reforms would gain majority support among the members.

Very truly yours,
